

ANCIENT GREECE

VASES

This kalyx krater was used for mixing wine and water at a drinking party or 'symposium'.

It shows Sarpedon being carried away from the battlefield to Lycia by Hypnos (Sleep) and Thanatos (Death), recounted in Book 16 of the Iliad.

It was painted by Euphronios c 515 BC.