

WARWICK

GLOBAL RESEARCH PRIORITIES
CONNECTING CULTURES

WARWICK

FACULTY OF ARTS

Alastair is a well-known international scholar who has written on sex and gender in the ancient and modern worlds, the legacy of the Greek hero Heracles, the reception of the ancient world in Film and TV as well as the culture of democratic Athens. In Australia, he has had his own phone-in radio show giving advice from the ancient world for modern day problems.

The Greeks and Us

An enthralling tale of why we are still indebted to, and fascinated by, the ancient world.

A public lecture by Alastair Blanshard, Paul Eliadis Chair of Classics at the University of Queensland Australia, who is the Institute of Advanced Study Visiting Fellow at Warwick January – February 2016.

Date: 1st February 2016

Time: 7pm-8:15pm, followed by a free drinks reception

Location: Studio Theatre, Warwick Arts Centre

Tickets: Free

Available from the Warwick Arts Centre website:

www.warwickartscentre.co.uk

or box office: 024 7652 4524

Proudly presented by the Warwick Classics and Ancient History
Department, Institute of Advanced Study and the Global Research Priorities
Connecting Cultures Group.

No previous knowledge of the ancient world is required.
Please be aware that this event will be filmed.