

The East London Classics Summer School

Monday 8th August to Friday 12th August 2022

We are delighted to announce, following on from the success of the summer school in August 2021, that we have now opened for applications to our Summer School for 2022. Please visit www.eastlondonclassicssummerschool.co.uk for more details or email us at eastlondoncss@gmail.com.

The course is a five-day intensive course of study of Latin language learning and consolidation in preparation for the GCSE examination in the summer of 2023. Candidates will have just completed Year 10. The course is ideal for any student who is finding some aspects of the language component of the course difficult and is keen to tighten up and refine their grammatical knowledge.

The course takes place in person, in the Hackney area of London. All stationery, study materials, and textbooks will be issued on arrival, and lunch will also be provided.

Our tutors are highly qualified subject specialists, former examiners of GCSE Latin, and practising Classics teachers across London. As such, they understand how to make learning visible, they can target the key areas of linguistic difficulty, and can directly contribute towards success in public examinations as well as enrich the students more generally.

The cost of the course is £200.00.

Please find here the course brochure and booking form.
